

A Sense of Place

danielle o'connor akiyama

A Sense of Place

we know place
as we return to ourselves
when we find the quiet within a centred still place
a remembering

we know place
through the expanse of the universe
and wide open spaces
... believing
in strength
in beauty
in the magnitude of good.

Danielle

THE ARRIVAL

Glazed Box Canvas Edition of 150

Artwork Size: 40 x 24"

£1,095

An open airy piece, capturing a sense of renewal.

On the bottom we have trees laden with heavy snow, while above we have floating cherry blossoms (sakura), signalling the arrival of spring and something new and exciting. There is a great sense of depth to this piece, with the weighted mountains grounding us and the washed expansive sky, where the spirit guides float, enveloping. The colour way is welcoming and calming and lets us know the moment of arrival has come.

WHEN WE DREAM

Glazed Box Canvas Edition of 150

Artwork Size: 40 x 24"

£1,095

A very dynamic piece, full of colour, movement and complementary forces. This is a homage to the dream state from which I draw so much inspiration for my work and life. The drama comes from the background sky awash with inky grey juxtaposed up against a strong rose-colored dawn. Where they interface, we have bubbles of frivolity and joy. This playful movement is polarised by the thrusting strength of the mountains and the powerful temples. Ethereal snow blossoms and spirit guides float skyward while the blue hued trees on the bottom take our eye to the rooted trunks, and with head in the sky and feet on the ground, we feel safe enough to embrace the dream state.

danielle o'connor akiyama